Dear Glenda,

Australasian Road Safety Conference 2022

Thank you and congratulations on the delivery of the 2022 ARSC. It was a milestone event for us in a few ways – the first face to face event after COVID, the first time we collaborated with another conference, but crucially also the first time we have held the conference in New Zealand.

I was warned that it may be too risky, to be in a new place, with the additional challenges of another country, and that perhaps we should just stick to Sydney or Melbourne to be safe. While the logistical and tax challenges of hosting a conference in a different country were not small, you supported us every step of the way in negotiating them. Not only did we succeed in hosting the event in New Zealand, but it was also the biggest conference we have held to date.

We received overwhelmingly positive feedback from the delegates, sponsors and exhibitors, and came away with a list of people and organisations who already wanted to put their name down for the next one.

Thank you for the efforts of you and your team, going above and beyond to make sure the experience was memorable for us all.

Kind regards,

Dr Ingrid Johnston
