Dear Glenda and team,

Please find below a testimonial from me regarding the work you did for the 2023 Trafinz conference.

Glenda and her team are amazing and can always be relied on to deliver a high quality, well organised and enjoyable conference.

Trafinz have used Harding Conferences for many years and have never had any reason to look elsewhere – we consider ourselves very fortunate to be able to work with such a professional team who are always responsive to our needs but who also bring new ideas and creative thinking to solving any problems.

The amazing service provided by this team was especially evident when we worked through the challenges of COVID restrictions resulting in our conference being postponed twice and finally being hosted in 2023. The Harding Conferences team managed sponsors, venue and attendees throughout this time to keep everyone well informed and to manage the financials (payments made and funding received) throughout the extended time period.

I would have no hesitation to recommend Glenda and her team for delivery of amazing conferences.

Yours sincerely
Robyn Denton
