Presentation Remit	All speed zones are now in place as part of the Land Transport New Zealand speed zoning project. The first of them, in Porirua, have now been installed for a year. This presentation will cover the preliminary results from the evaluation of the speed zones that have been in place for more than 3 months, along with issues that arose during the assessment of these speed zones. Discussion will centre on the future direction of rural speed zoning.
